MTV Networks is a trading name of MTV Europe, a partnership between Viacom Networks Europe Inc. & MTV Networks Europe Inc. Address for service is as above

To whom it may concern:

Reference CallScope Controls

I have used CallScope Controls for a number of years and I can say that they have always been most helpful and accommodating in any Project and Service work that I have undertaken.

CallScope Controls have always strived to come up with the best solutions and innovations to the numerous difficult tasks that they have completed for me, always on time and on budget.

I would have no hesitation or reservations about recommending CallScope controls to other Clients.

Yours Sincerely,

John Speers
Head of Building Services
MTV International
